SECOND GRAND DANCE AT NEW VINEBURG INN TONIGHT

Tonight there'll be a sound of mad and merry revelry at New Vineburg Inn—the well-conducted hostelry owned by A. W. Lehrke and successfully managed by that "prince of good fellows," Howard Brown.

The big doings is announced as the "Second Grand Dance" given at the Inn, and from reported completed arrangements we are safe in assuring those who never tire of the pastime that the event will be just such another enjoyable affair as the first—a regular "we-won't-go-home-until-morning time."

Charles Groskopf and William Bloch, who so capably managed on the former occasion, will again display their generalship, music is to be provided by the Pauli-Hansen Orchestra, and a fine supper served.

The price of admission has been placed at the nominal sum of twenty-five cents, with supper only "two bits" extra.

The Board declared Dr. Hays and Mr. Dowdall each elected for three years, and Mr. Ranker elected for one year.

The result of the election gives general satisfaction to tax-payers, since the assurance has been made doubly sure that the conduct of the district is in safe hands. It is, as a matter of fact, not an easy matter to secure "good men and true" who are willing to accept the responsibilities and worries of official positions, for which the only remuneration is public criticism.

As we announced last week, the hold-overs were Robt. P. Hill of Glen Ellen, and E. H. Rubke of Vineburg. The Sonoma Union Valley High School District is to be congratulated on having the guidance of its progress in such safe hands.

Interesting News Notes from Our Regular Correspondents In Near-By Suburban Towns

VINEBURG

Mrs. Fred Schell, of San Francisco, who spent last week with her mother, Mrs. Douglas Church, returned home Sunday.

Charles Stornetti, our popular dairyman, is now engaged in making extensive improvements on his fine ranch on the Napa road.

George W. Reed, the veteran railroad agent of Sonoma, and one of the valley's most esteemed citizens was a visitor here on Sunday last.

Constable Jack Murray and Base Ball Magnate Jim Modini, two of Sonoma's solid men, were exchanging greetings with their Vineburg friends last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Bundschu of the metropolis were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bundschu, at their pretty residence on the Rhine Farm Sunday last.

Mrs. A. W. Lehrke and son Henry, accompanied by Miss Hulda Ohlson, returned to their city home Sunday, after spending two weeks in this part of the valley.

Otto Dresel, the energetic young manager of the Dresel Vineyards, and a star base ball player of Sonoma, enjoyed the sights in the Exposition City this week.

Charles Selinger, a leading sausage manufacturer of San Francisco, and family, after a week's sojourn at El Verano Villa, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Groskopf at Whispering Pines, Sunday, prior to their departure for home.

Vineburg last Sunday forgot that this is only springtime and put on its mid-summer clothes—white waists, straw hats, and dresses of light material seeming to be the proper thing. Even Jim Small had on his Panama hat that he lost in Gundlach's Vineyard five years ago. Sure, Jim is always up-to-date.

EASY JIM.

SAL'S PICK-UPS

[SPECIAL BY LEASED WIRE, THE SHORTEST IN THE WORLD.]

Paul Robin and his three boys were fishing in Sonoma Creek Sunday.

It is reported that Mike Loneragan is going to locate in El Verano. Welcome to our town, Mike, and don't forget your race horses.

Roy Chance was in town Sunday. Roy is now employed at the Mare Island Navy yard, and is following up the gentle vocation of tinkering around battle ships.

Mrs. Philip Rossi, proprietor of The Hotel Archibald, Vallejo, Cal., and formerly one of the proprietors of the Swiss American Hotel, El Verano, was visiting her folks here, Sunday.

W. J. Rushmore, formerly chief of police of Santa Rosa was in town Saturday. Mr. Rushmore is connected with the firm of Grace Brothers, and was here looking after their interests.

Dick Maloney, the well-known superintendent of Louis Parente's place is kept busy these days keeping the weeds trimmed up and otherwise beautifying the place. Dick is a keen ranch-man and believes in that old saying, "Early to bed and early to rise, makes a man healthy, wealthy and wise."

The following appeared in California—a journal of rural industry—a magazine published in El Verano and San Francisco, in 1890: "The lonely Sonoma Valley, sleeping for years on her laurels gathered in the early days, wakes up again today to find her fame renewed, her reputation as one of the foremost horticultural districts of the State reinstated, time having added to her product of unsurpassed wine that of the finest olive oil, and the most luscious prunes which our State has ever produced."

Mrs. N. Knight and daughter, Miss Bessie, enjoyed Sunday last visiting relatives and friends here.

Mrs. James T. Tate and little daughter, Miss Jeanne, were called to the Bay City last Tuesday morning.

The Misses Emily Kearney, M. Walsh and May Kearney, of El Verano, drove down here last Friday evening to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Schell and little son Warren, returned to San Francisco, Sunday, after having spent a pleasant week with relatives and friends here.

Mrs. L. Buzzini and family, of Suisun, arrived at the home of her sister, Mrs. H. Hopke, the early part of the week, expecting to remain a few days.

A number of lady friends spent Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. E. Bennett, enjoying their visit very much. Refreshments were served.

VALUABLE KNOWLEDGE FOR THE POULTRY PRODUCERS

On the fourth page of today's issue of the Index-Tribune appears the first of a series of articles from the pen of E. T. Lindley, manager of the Sonoma Feed Store under the new ownership. These letters were written for the Pacific Rural Press, the best all-around-the-farm journal in California, the editor of which—as a result of personal observation—realized how great and beneficial the knowledge Mr. Lindley could impart to his readers.

Touching upon his public demonstrations in San Francisco, the editor of the Rural Press pays this encomium to Mr. Lindley:

"Mr. Lindley's exhibitions at the San Francisco Poultry Show were startling to say the least. With electric-lighted testers he showed that absolutely fresh eggs of the same size, color and weight often vary greatly in quality. He showed the difference due to incorrect feeding and to the drinking of dirty and alkali water. Cold storage eggs handled properly and improperly were shown in the light. This is one of the most practical educational exhibitions possible, considering Mr. Lindley's front rank among American expert egg testers."

The Index-Tribune asks its poultry-raising readers to tell associates in the industry of the intelligent information so close at hand and generously given, and to co-operate with Mr. Lindley in his well-directed efforts.

Jack Harper and family, of San Francisco, arrived here last Sunday to visit at the Jos. Keiser home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Young entertained a few San Francisco friends at dinner on Sunday last.

The Misses Irene and Anita Riebli of Petaluma and Josephine Steiner of Sonoma spent last week at the home of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Keechler of McGills.

Miss Kate Wilber, school teacher of San Luis District, spent last week in San Francisco attending the State Convention, and also taking in the wonderful attractions of the Exposition.

HAPPY JACK.

SONOMA VS. CRYSTALS TO MATCH SKILL IN THIS CITY;

Tomorrow afternoon, at two o'clock, the Sonoma Ball Club will endeavor to win back what prestige they had before the game of last Sunday.

The backing the home guard received from the loyal fans was not repaid by the team, as the exhibition of base ball was of the rankest. Sonoma hit the ball hard, but the support given the pitcher was poor. The game was a see-saw affair, Napa opening in the second inning with a two-run lead. In Sonoma's half of the same inning, we scored three times and again in the fourth. Napa was in front after the bombardment in the seventh, and "Our Boys" were unable to overtake the lead of the opponents, and the final score was 10 to 8 in favor of Napa.

Nevertheless, the boys of the Sonoma team have been working faithfully all week in anticipation of wiping out the defeat of last Sunday. The Crystals of Petaluma will be the opponents. They are prepared for a good battle, and will be well supported in their efforts to win as three auto tracks of fans, accompanied by a band of eight pieces, will be here to cheer them to victory.

Now, that the first game of the season and the nervousness that is bound to be exhibited on an occasion of this sort has been displayed, "Our Boys" are bound to give any of the visiting teams a hard game.

Sonoma has an excellent team and can play good base ball. Boys, it's now up to you and good luck.

Jas. L. Modini, manager of the Sonoma Ball Club has seen the necessity of improvements and has put a new roof over the grandstand to protect his patrons from foul balls.

Last Sunday the attendance was too much for the grandstand, so it has been lengthened twenty feet. In future, all ladies will be supplied cushioned seats "free of charge."

Some "Twenty Years Ago" In Old Sonoma

(FROM THE SONOMA INDEX-TRIBUNE OF APRIL 20, 1895.)

George Breitenbach and Miss Hattie Gaines rode over to Petaluma on their wheels Sunday last.

Miss Agnes Duhring is up from school in the Bay City spending this week at her Sonoma home. Miss Agnes is a student at Miss Lake's seminary.

F. Cleve is building a new front on the old Union Stable building which will greatly improve the appearance of the property. When completed a portion of the building will be occupied by Louis Larson, the tonorial artist, who will vacate his present quarters, which will in turn be leased by H. Laux for a saloon.

A Mr. Dean of San Francisco took possession this week of the Agua Caliente Springs ranch to satisfy a mortgage of $15,000 executed by the former owner, M. K. Cady, who has been in possession of the property for over fifteen years.

The hotel, swimming baths, wine cellar and hotel grounds have been disposed of by Mr. Dean to Dr. Nordin of Alameda, who will improve the hotel and grounds and conduct the same as a first-class summer resort and sanitarium.

John Louibos, manager of Mrs. Senator Hearst's vineyards and wine cellars near this place, was seized with an attack of la grippe last Thursday, since which time he has been under the care of a physician.

A patron of an Oregon paper wrote to the editor asking what the weather in the next month would be like. The ready reply was: "It is likely that the weather of next month will be very much like your subscription bill." After a little pondering the inquirer recollected that his bill was "unsettled" and so he at once sent a postal order.

BIG TENT SHOW IN SONOMA, APRIL 21

This is the first time that the public have had an opportunity of seeing the "New Version" of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," the greatest dramatization of this popular play ever written. Mrs. Stowe's historical play has ever been a favorite with the women and children, and they always go to see it whenever an opportunity to do so presents itself.

Burk's Big "Uncle Tom's Cabin Company" has the distinction of being the largest organization of its kind on the road. They carry a special train of their own cars to transport their People, Horses, Ponies, Donkeys, Dogs, Chariots, and other paraphernalia necessary to present the only Grand Spectacular Production of this, the most successful drama ever written.

The characters of Uncle Tom, Eliza, Little Eva, and Marks are all ably presented by a competent cast, and the large contingent of singers and dancers, blood hounds, etc., give a realistic and sensational naturalism to the performance. The scenic and mechanical effects are good, and the picturesque transformation scene is a fitting finish to the whole.

So carry the news and tell your neighbors. The only Big show Company will exhibit at Sonoma, Wednesday night, April 21st.

A Convenience for Anglers

As a matter of convenience to local anglers, F. Cleve, in their usual wide awake policy have arranged with the County Clerk to supply licenses for the year 1915. Apropos to the same question, they have laid in a supply of tackle wherewith to lure the finny tribe.

SPECIAL DINNERS

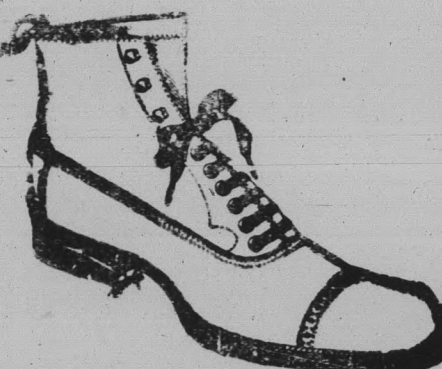

Sonoma Grove has added to its already splendid equipment for serving the public another spacious dining room, their increased trade in special dinners demanding considerably greater capacities. These special Sunday and week-day dinners—which include raviolis—are patronized by motoring parties from Santa Rosa, Petaluma, and other points, as well as our own townspeople, all of whom are advertising their exceptional excellence. Parties wishing to dine at Sonoma Grove will do well to make previous reservation. Other improvements are being made in and around the well-known resort by the proprietor, Arthur Mosso, who caters to the public in the most painstaking and satisfying manner.

NEWS OF THE WEEK IN SONOMA VALLEY

Miss Ilia Speegle, of San Francisco, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. D. Colli, at Vineburg.

Miss Mary Regresse spent a few days visiting her friends, Misses Dorothy and Doreles Breitenbach, at week.

At the meeting of the Sonoma Moose Social Club, held Tuesday night, it was decided to hold the Club's annual picnic at Oak Grove on Sunday, June 20th. Trustee Wm. Russell was appointed to arrange for the Grove service.

J. M. Long, of Oakland, who recently purchased a suburban site through the agency of W. W. Carter, was here last week. As soon as arrangements are completed, the gentleman will commence the construction of an attractive bungalow on his property.

Popula Ray Button, of Boyes Springs had as his guest last week Dick Von Hoese, of the University of California. Dick is a former Sonoma boy, and this fact, coupled with the characteristic hospitality of his host, rendered his stay very pleasant.

While returning to her home near town, Thursday afternoon, in making too short a turn at the Bacala corner, on the road to the springs, the conveyance in which Mrs. A. Chevalier was riding was overturned, and the lady thrown out, sustaining a badly broken ankle in the fall. Dr. W. B. Hays attended the injured woman, who is resting comfortably at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Adler and Mrs. Pauline McMullin motored to Vallejo, Monday, and were the guests of Captain H. Heinke of the Mars. The visitors also had the pleasure of being shown the interesting United States Cruiser San Diego (formerly the California). The cruiser had arrived at Mare Island just twenty-four hours previous to the visit of the party of Sonoma sight-seers.

In the realty market business is commencing to pick up, so reports Real Estate Agent W. W. Carter. Last week Mr. Carter made the sale of two five-acre lots on the Haraszthy Tract. Albert Rensch, of Oakland, was the purchaser of one piece, and with his family has already taken possession, as there is a comfortable house on the premises. The other place was sold to Carl Schmidt, of San Francisco, and that gentleman will at once have erected for himself and family a modern bungalow. We are very glad to welcome both families to the Sonoma Valley as they come to us bearing splendid recommendations as desirable residents.

The members of the Woman's Improvement Club of Glen Ellen are congratulating themselves on the success of the ball given under the auspices of that organization last Saturday night. Mesdames Charles Lane, L. Costa and Walter Gage, who comprised the committee of arrangements, were highly complimented on the result of their efforts. The floor was admirably managed by Messrs. Tony Cheregino, Chas. Lane and Harry Weise. The receipts of the ball, in connection with the amount raised by subscription, leaves the ladies a nice balance over and above the amount necessary for the continuance of the Glen Ellen school the full-length term.

Miss Gertrude Breitenbach came down from Eldridge, Monday, for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Breitenbach.

Of late many requests have been made at the Sonoma Public Library for Sunset Magazine. Would some generous resident like to contribute Sunset after reading it?

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clewe are entertaining Mrs. Clewe's mother, Mrs. R. P. Smith, of Santa Rosa. They are also enjoying a visit from the lady's cousin, Jackson L. Temple, who is here from Massachusetts visiting his California relatives and viewing the Exposition.

Miss Martha Landgraf, who for the past four years has made her home with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Adler, departed for Oakland last week, to make her home with her sister. It is the young lady's plan to take a business course. Miss Martha has been a popular girl in the younger set, and will be missed by many well-wishing friends.

The Rebekah Sewing Circle enjoyed the hospitality of the Louis Breitenbach home, Friday of last week, with Miss Anita Breitenbach as the charming hostess. The afternoon was busily spent by skillful fingers and much pleasant social converse helped (or, was it hindered?) the rapid plying of the needles. The next fortnightly meeting of the Circle will be held at the home of Mrs. H. Lutgens.

Little Irving the manly two-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. I. C. Gobar, met with a painful accident Wednesday morning. While playing, the child fell on an overturned wheelbarrow, the wire claspings of which penetrated his right cheek almost through, several stitches being necessary to close the wound. Irving is a wonderful little athlete already, doing many amazing "stunts," and family friends deplore the unfortunate occurrence to their happy little playfellow.

The Drum Corps' Ball, at Union Hall, last Saturday night, was very largely attended, and pronounced quite up to anticipations. The music by the Hansen-Pauli Orchestra was of exceptional excellence—so much so that the dancers demanded repeated encores, which were generously given. Fred Helberg, Leonard Thomas and Louis Picetti, as floor managers, looked well after the pleasure of the many dancers, affording everybody a splendid good time. The Drum Corps plan to give a grand ball in Glen Ellen sometime in May.

Miss Amy Rowe returned from San Francisco, Friday morning last, whither she had gone to meet her parents, Postmaster and Mrs. A. T. Rowe, of Oakdale, Nebraska. The visitors are guests at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Carter. Mr. Rowe, who has been postmaster in Oakdale for fifteen years, has a month's leave of absence, the greater part of which the worthy couple will enjoy to the fullest with their Sonoma relatives, as companionship with their daughters had been denied them for over six, hence the mutual joy at the reunion may well be imagined. Mr. and Mrs. Rowe are charmed with the Golden State and the beauty of the Valley of the Moon. The Exposition will be visited before their return to Nebraska.

Miss Helen Koerner returned, Tuesday evening, from a several days' visit in the metropolis.

Mrs. L. Breitenbach and daughter, Miss Anita, visited with their friend, Mrs. Colli, at Vineburg, Tuesday.

Miss Emily Poppe was at home from Berkeley for a week-end visit with her parents, Attorney and Mrs. Robt. A. Poppe.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Garoni rejoice at the birth of a little son, who made his advent at the Sonoma Valley Sanitarium, Tuesday afternoon. Mother and babe are doing well.

Mrs. Mae Ehrlebach has accepted a position in the general merchandise establishment of Baer Brothers. Aside from her competency, Mrs. Ehrlebach will increase the sales made by the big store because of her favor with many friends who will remember where to find her on shopping days.

The regular monthly meeting of The White Shell Club was held at the home of Mrs. H. D. Burmester in El Verano, Tuesday of last week. After the business session, the hostess served refreshments in the enjoyment of which chicken raising was forgotten for a time. This organization—of which Mrs. Burmester is president and Mrs. Bird secretary—was effected by the wives of the poultry producers of the Sonoma Valley for the purpose of assisting in the promotion of the industry. Mrs. Bird reports active interest being taken in the Club and expects much good to result from the united efforts of the ladies.

Will Kehoe and Ed Hamilton are receiving the hearty congratulations of their friends on their narrow escape from serious injuries late Tuesday afternoon. Will had just finished a delivery of goods at Caliente, and attempting to turn on a narrow downhill the wagon capsized, pinning the occupants underneath, from which it was impossible to extricate themselves despite their best efforts. The horses started on a run down the incline, but the fortunate breaking of the pole of the wagon, which separated the frightened team from the vehicle, prevented the dragging of the young men, who luckily escaped with a few scratches. F. Clewe, to whom the team belonged, sustained the loss of badly broken harness and damaged wagon.

SONOMA HORSES TO RUN AT DIXON MEET

Our local horse-lovers and enthusiasts are bus at present, preparing the trotters and pacers for the racing meet at Dixon on May Day.

Joe Ryan, Sonoma Valley's dauntless and champion driver, for the past two weeks has been preparing his two horses, Kate Dillon and Le Donna, for the occasion.

Ryan has pinned his faith in Kate Dillon, who is entered in the 2:20 trot. Le Donna, entered in free-for-all pace, has a hard field to contend with, but he can pace, and we look for this horse to bring home a trophy.

Lee Brubeck's Lady Stillwell is being prepared for the 2:20 pace and with Joe Ryan holding the reins, the horse beating her will have to pace some.

The above-mentioned horses, with Silver Voyage added to the list of entries, will race at the Exposition in June. Local enthusiasts are looking forward to the trophies that will be added to Joe's present collection.

Mercur, a Percheron stallion three years old, weight two thousand and fifty-six pounds, has been recently imported from France for breeding purposes. This horse is owned jointly by Jos. Ryan, W. J. Martinelli, Drs. A. M. Thomson and W. B. Hays, C. R. Potter, H. V. DuBois of Napa, E. Tomassi and Fillipini Brothers.

Mercur can be seen at Union Stables, Saturdays and Sundays; Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, at Martinelli Ranch, and on Thursdays and Fridays at Fillipini Brothers.

BASE BALL AT BOYES' SUNDAY AFTERNOON

At 2:00 p.m. tomorrow afternoon the Boyes Springs Ball team will line up against the Napa Y. M. I. Last Sunday the Napa team defeated our boys so the game tomorrow at Boyes will be a fast one.

ORPHEUM ACT AT FETTERS' TONIGHT

Jay Roberts, James Fagare and P. H. Logare who are taking a rest at Feters Springs are rehearsing a new act which they will do over the Orpheum Circuit the coming season. These talented young men will sing a few of their latest song hits at Feters Theatre this Saturday evening.

MARIN TO AID CUT-OFF
The last obstacle in the path of the proposed Black Point cut-off between San Rafael and Sonoma was removed last week when the Marin Supervisors passed a resolution instructing the District Attorney to secure the rights of way between Ignacio and Black Point. Previous to the passing of the resolution, the Marin County Supervisors had held that the State Highway Commission should pay for the right of way. The cut-off clips between fifteen and twenty miles from the present automobile route between San Francisco and Sonoma, Napa and Sacramento counties.
